

dèsLibris

Access ebooks from major Canadian publishers.

WHAT IS dèsLibris?

- It is Canada's largest online eBook collection.
- There are over 70,000 Canadian books and public documents from scholarly and independent publishers, public policy institutes, think tanks, and government agencies.
- Content is added on a weekly basis, with key titles in the news appearing daily.
- Topics of interest include environment, business & economics, Canadian history, law, education, health & medicine, and social sciences.

SEARCHING FOR TITLES

- Open dèsLibris or access it through this link on the Legislative Library website: E-Resources for MLA's and Assembly Staff (click 'ebooks' then 'dèsLibris').
- If prompted, enter your Legislative Assembly network username and password.
- Use the Search box at the top of the page to look for books and documents.
- Click on the Advanced Search feature to help narrow down your search.
- You can also browse the collection by scrolling down the page and clicking to the next page. Titles appear in the order of date added.

READING

- To read a book or document, click on the cover.
- To move the pages, use the arrows on the left-hand side or at the bottom of the menu bar.
- Use the '+' and '-' buttons to increase or decrease the size of the page.
- Click on this icon  to change the page view to full screen.
- Click on this icon  to access the Table of Contents for the book or document.
- Use the magnifying glass icon  to search within the book by keyword for a specific word or phrase.