

PURPOSE

Branches of Government

There are three branches of government:

LEGISLATIVE

EXECUTIVE

JUDICIAL

Fill in the blanks to the following questions using these three words.

1. The _____ branch of government interprets the laws of the Province.
2. The _____ branch of government asks for provincial dollars to operate its programs.
3. The _____ branch of government approves the dollars for the Province to operate its programs.
4. The _____ branch of government implements programs for British Columbians.
5. The _____ branch of government enforces the laws of the Province.
6. The _____ branch of government makes the laws of the Province.
7. The _____ branch of government questions the actions of the _____ branch of government about its programs.

NAME

PURPOSE

Branches of Government

There are three branches of government:

LEGISLATIVE

EXECUTIVE

JUDICIAL

Fill in the blanks to the following questions using these three words.

1. The Judicial branch of government interprets the laws of the Province.
2. The Executive branch of government asks for provincial dollars to operate its programs.
3. The Legislative branch of government approves the dollars for the Province to operate its programs.
4. The Executive branch of government implements programs for British Columbians.
5. The Judicial branch of government enforces the laws of the Province.
6. The Legislative branch of government makes the laws of the Province.
7. The Legislative branch of government questions the actions of the Executive branch of government about its programs.

NAME