

Guide to Submissions

The Select Standing Committee on Finance and Government Services invites British Columbians to share their priorities and ideas for the next provincial budget. There are a number of ways to participate, including making a written, video or audio submission or completing the online survey. Public hearings are also being held.

This document is provided as a guide for individuals and organizations making a submission to the Budget 2021 Consultation.

PREPARING YOUR SUBMISSION

When preparing your submission, it may be helpful to:

- clearly indicate who the submission is from, i.e. whether from you in a personal capacity or sent on behalf of an organization
- provide information about your organization's background, if applicable
- provide a brief summary or rationale for your suggestions
- list your top 3-5 recommendations in order of importance
- ensure your recommendations are as specific as possible
- include the estimated costs or savings, if applicable
- be concise

Please note that you can revise and provide additional comments and documents up until the consultation closing date of Friday, June 26, 2020 at 5:00 pm.

UPLOADING YOUR SUBMISSION

Please upload your submission via the Committee's online consultation portal in one of the following formats: .pdf, .doc, .docx, .ppt, .pptx, .xls, .xlsx, .jpeg, .jpg, .png, mp3. If your file is over 10 MB in size, please consider sending us your file on a flash drive or using another method. For example, if you would like to share a video file, consider uploading it to a website such as YouTube and providing a link in your submission.

PRIVACY

Please note that submissions to parliamentary committees are considered public documents and may be published on the Committee's website or made available to interested parties, usually following the release of a Committee's report.

Please do not include any confidential information in your submission.

For more information, please see our Privacy Policy.
