- (3) If the police complaint commissioner arranges a public hearing in respect of conduct that is the subject of a discipline proceeding, the discipline authority must cancel the discipline proceeding.

95 The following section is added:

Chief constable may designate qualified person as discipline authority

- 133.1 (1) In this section, “qualified person” means a person who is on the list established under section 177.3 [list of persons qualified to be discipline authorities].
- (2) At any time after an investigation is initiated under this Part into the conduct of a member or former member of a municipal police department, the chief constable of the municipal police department may designate a qualified person to be a discipline authority, instead of the chief constable.
 - (3) If a qualified person is designated under subsection (2), the chief constable must promptly notify the following of the designation:
 - (a) the police complaint commissioner;
 - (b) subject to section 88 [duty to preserve evidence relating to complaint or report], the member or former member concerned.

96 Section 135 (1) is repealed and the following substituted:

- (1) Subject to subsections (1.1) and (2), at any time after an investigation is initiated under this Part into the conduct of a member or former member of a municipal police department, the police complaint commissioner may designate a senior officer of another municipal police department, or a person on the list of qualified persons established under section 177.3 [list of persons qualified to be discipline authorities], to exercise the powers and perform the duties of a discipline authority under one or more provisions of this Division, instead of the person referred to in subsection (1.1) (a), (b) or (c).
- (1.1) The power to designate a senior officer or qualified person under subsection (1) may be exercised if the police complaint commissioner considers it necessary in the public interest that a person other than the following, as applicable, be the discipline authority for the purposes of the applicable provisions:
 - (a) a chief constable of the municipal police department;
 - (b) the chief constable’s delegate;
 - (c) a qualified person that the chief constable has designated as a discipline authority under section 133.1 (2) [chief constable may designate qualified person as discipline authority].

97 Section 135 (2) is repealed and the following substituted:

- (2) Subject to subsection (2.1), at any time after an investigation is initiated under this Part into the conduct of a member or former member of a municipal police department who, at the time of the conduct of concern, is or was a chief constable or deputy chief constable, the police complaint commissioner may appoint a retired judge to exercise the powers and perform the duties of a discipline authority under one or more provisions of this Division, instead of the chair of the municipal police board.
- (2.1) The power to appoint a retired judge under subsection (2) may be exercised if the police complaint commissioner considers it necessary in the public interest that a person other than the chair of the municipal police board be the discipline authority for the purposes of the applicable provisions and, if the power is exercised, the retired judge must be appointed in accordance with section 177.2 [list and appointment of retired judges].

98 Section 137 is amended by adding the following subsection:

- (3) If the police complaint commissioner is required under subsection (1) to arrange a public hearing, or decides under subsection (2) to arrange a review on the record, the police complaint commissioner must notify the following:
 - (a) the complainant, if any;
 - (b) the member or former member whose conduct is the subject of concern;
 - (c) a chief constable of the municipal police department with which the member is employed or, in the case of a former member, a chief constable of the municipal police department with which the former member was employed at the time of the conduct of concern;
 - (d) if the member or former member concerned is or was the chief constable of a municipal police department, the chair of the board of that municipal police department;
 - (e) the discipline authority involved, if different than the chief constable or chair of the board referred to in paragraph (c) or (d).

99 Section 138 (1) is repealed and the following substituted:

- (1) The police complaint commissioner must arrange a public hearing or review on the record if, after considering the factors referred to in subsection (2), the police complaint commissioner determines that a public hearing or review on the record is necessary in the public interest.

100 Section 138 is amended

(a) in subsection (2) by striking out “In considering” and substituting “In determining” and by striking out “the following factors” and substituting “the following”, and

(b) by adding the following subsections:

- (2.1) A determination under this section as to whether a public hearing is necessary in the public interest may be made, on the police complaint commissioner’s own initiative, at any time after the police complaint commissioner receives a final investigation report.
- (2.2) A determination under this section as to whether a review on the record is necessary in the public interest may be made, on the police complaint commissioner’s own initiative, at any time after a copy of the discipline authority’s report is provided to the police complaint commissioner under section 133 (1) (b) [review of discipline proceedings].

101 Section 138 (3) is repealed and the following substituted:

- (3) The police complaint commissioner must make a determination under this section as to whether a public hearing or review on the record is necessary in the public interest
 - (a) promptly after, as the case may be,
 - (i) the police complaint commissioner receives a request under section 136 [time limit for requesting public hearing or review on the record] in circumstances other than those described in section 137 (1) [circumstances when member or former member concerned is entitled to public hearing], or
 - (ii) the relevant limitation period expires, and
 - (b) in any event, not later than 20 business days after
 - (i) the request referred to in paragraph (a) (i) of this subsection is received, or
 - (ii) the relevant limitation period referred to in paragraph (a) (ii) of this subsection expires.
- (3.1) If the police complaint commissioner decides or is required to arrange a public hearing, the police complaint commissioner may consolidate matters to be heard at the public hearing including, without limitation, by doing the following:
 - (a) consolidating 2 or more matters involving the same member or former member;
 - (b) consolidating 2 or more matters involving different members or former members, if the police complaint commissioner considers that the matters are related.

102 Section 138 is amended

- (a) in subsection (4) by striking out “after making a determination under this section” and substituting “after determining that a public hearing or review on the record is necessary in the public interest”,
- (b) by repealing subsection (5) and substituting the following:
 - (5) If the police complaint commissioner determines, in respect of a request referred to in subsection (3), that a public hearing or review on the record is not necessary in the public interest, the police complaint commissioner must, within 10 business days after making the determination,
 - (a) notify the persons referred to in subsection (4), and
 - (b) give written reasons for that determination. , and
- (c) by repealing subsection (7) (a) and (b) and substituting the following:
 - (a) is required under section 137 to arrange a public hearing, or
 - (b) determines under this section that a public hearing is necessary in the public interest, .

103 Section 139 is repealed and the following substituted:

Reconsideration on new evidence

- 139
- (1) Despite section 138 (3) and (6), at any time after the police complaint commissioner has determined that a public hearing or review on the record is not necessary in the public interest, the police complaint commissioner may reconsider the determination if satisfied, on application by any person or on the police complaint commissioner’s own initiative, that new evidence has become available or been discovered that is substantial and material to the case or that determination.
 - (2) In reconsidering whether a public hearing or review on the record is necessary in the public interest, the police complaint commissioner must consider all relevant factors, including, without limitation, the factors described in section 138 (2).
 - (3) If the police complaint commissioner determines, on reconsideration, that a public hearing or review on the record is necessary in the public interest, section 138 (3.1), (4) and (7) apply in relation to the determination.
 - (4) If the police complaint commissioner determines, on reconsideration in respect of an application referred to in subsection (1), that a public hearing or review on the record is not necessary in the public interest, section 138 (5) and (6) apply in relation to the determination.

104 Section 140 (1) is repealed and the following substituted:

- (1) A determination made under or referred to in any of the following provisions may be made available to the public by the police complaint commissioner by posting the determination on a publicly accessible website maintained by or on behalf of the police complaint commissioner:
 - (a) section 137 (2) [circumstances when member or former member concerned is entitled to public hearing];
 - (b) section 138 (4) or (5) [determining whether to arrange public hearing or review on the record in other circumstances];
 - (c) section 139 (3) or (4) [reconsideration on new evidence].

105 Section 141 is amended

- (a) in subsection (2) by striking out “if the police complaint commissioner determines that there are sufficient grounds to arrange a public hearing or review on the record in respect of a disciplinary decision under section 138 [determining whether to arrange public hearing or review on the record] or 139 [reconsideration on new evidence]” and substituting “if the police complaint commissioner determines, in respect of a disciplinary decision, that a public hearing or review on the record is necessary in the public interest”, and
- (b) in subsections (3) and (5) by striking out “under this section”.

106 Section 142 (1) and (2) are repealed and the following substituted:

- (1) If the police complaint commissioner is required or decides to arrange a public hearing or review on the record, the police complaint commissioner must appoint a retired judge to act as adjudicator for the purposes of the public hearing or review on the record.
- (2) The appointment under subsection (1) must be made in accordance with section 177.2 [list and appointment of retired judges].

107 Section 143 is amended

- (a) by repealing subsection (1) (a) and substituting the following:
 - (a) the police complaint commissioner determines that, for the purposes of completing a review of the disciplinary decision on a standard of correctness and doing the things described in section 141 (10), it is likely that evidence other than the following will be necessary:
 - (i) the record of the disciplinary decision described in section 141 (3);

- (ii) the service record of the member or former member concerned;
- (iii) submissions described in section 141 (5), (6) and (7) [review on the record]; , and

(b) in subsection (4) by striking out “under this section”.

108 Section 156 (1) (a) is amended by striking out “or a reportable injury”.

109 Section 171 is amended

(a) by repealing subsection (1) (d) and substituting the following:

- (d) dismiss the complaint on any of the grounds set out in subsection (2.1); ,
and

(b) by adding the following subsection:

(2.1) The board may dismiss a complaint if the board determines that any of the following apply:

- (a) the complaint is trivial, frivolous, vexatious or not made in good faith;
- (b) the complaint is filed for an improper purpose or motive;
- (c) the complaint concerns a policy or service matter that has been appropriately resolved;
- (d) the complaint is not about a policy or service matter that
 - (i) is under the general direction and management or operation of the municipal police department, or
 - (ii) is otherwise described in section 168 (1) [making a service or policy complaint].

110 The following section is added to Division 5 of Part 11:

Duty of municipal police board to establish policy respecting service and policy complaints

173.1 (1) In this section:

“complaints policy” means the policies and procedures described in subsection (2);

“complaints policy guidelines” means the guidelines, if any, established by the police complaint commissioner under section 177 (4) (e.2) [general responsibility and functions of police complaint commissioner].

- (2) A municipal police board must establish policies and procedures for handling, reviewing and responding to complaints made under this Division.
- (3) A complaints policy must
 - (a) be established within the time period that the director specifies, and

- (b) be consistent with the complaints policy guidelines, as those guidelines read on the date the director specifies.
- (4) At least once every 4 years after establishing a complaints policy, a municipal police board must
 - (a) review the complaints policy, and
 - (b) if the complaints policy is not consistent with the complaints policy guidelines, amend the complaints policy to achieve consistency with those guidelines.
- (5) Before establishing or amending a complaints policy, a municipal police board must provide an opportunity for members of the community to provide input respecting the complaints policy or amendments to the complaints policy.
- (6) Promptly after establishing or amending a complaints policy, a municipal police board must post the complaints policy or amended complaints policy on a publicly accessible website maintained by or on behalf of the municipal police board.

111 The following Division is added to Part 11:

Division 6.1 – Discipline Matters
Involving Former Designated Officers or Former Members

Process if member is former designated officer

- 176.2 (1) This section applies in relation to a person who is a member or former member of a municipal police department if,
- (a) before becoming a member of the municipal police department, the person was a designated officer or former designated officer, and
 - (b) before or after becoming a member of the municipal police department, an investigation under a designated unit complaints regulation has been initiated concerning the conduct of the person when that person was a designated officer.
- (2) An investigation referred to in subsection (1) (b) must be conducted under the designated unit complaints regulation but, at the conclusion of the investigation, the disciplinary or corrective measures to be taken, if any, in relation to the person must be determined in accordance with this Part and the directions of the police complaint commissioner.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), this Part applies as if
- (a) the person had been a member at the time of the conduct of concern, and
 - (b) the investigation had been conducted under this Part.
- (4) During an investigation referred to in subsection (1) (b), notices required to be given to the chief officer of the designated unit must also be given to the chief constable of the municipal police department.

Process if former member is designated officer

- 176.3 (1) This section applies in relation to a person who is a designated officer or former designated officer of a designated unit if,
- (a) before becoming a designated officer of the designated unit, the person was a member or former member of a municipal police department, and
 - (b) before or after becoming a designated officer of the designated unit, an investigation under this Part has been initiated concerning the conduct of the person when that person was a member of the municipal police department.
- (2) An investigation referred to in subsection (1) (b) must be conducted under this Part but, at the conclusion of the investigation, the disciplinary or corrective measures to be taken, if any, in relation to the person must be determined in accordance with the designated unit complaints regulation and the directions of the police complaint commissioner.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), the designated unit complaints regulation applies as if
- (a) the person had been a designated officer of the designated unit at the time of the conduct of concern, and

- (b) the investigation had been conducted under the designated unit complaints regulation.
- (4) During an investigation referred to in subsection (1) (b), notices required to be given to the chief constable of the municipal police department must also be given to the chief officer of the designated unit.

Police complaint commissioner may direct next steps

- 176.4 (1) The police complaint commissioner may issue directions to a discipline authority respecting the steps to be taken or proceedings to be conducted for the purposes of determining a matter in accordance with section 176.2 [process if member is former designated officer] or 176.3.
- (2) The discipline authority must ensure that every direction issued to it under subsection (1) is carried out.

Duty to cooperate under Division 6.1

- 176.5 Discipline authorities, investigating officers and other persons who have powers or duties under this Part, or under a designated unit complaints regulation, must cooperate with the police complaint commissioner, and each other, for the purposes of determining a matter in accordance with this Division.

112 Section 177 (3) is amended by striking out “Before making the reports referred to in subsection (2) (f) available to the public” and substituting “Before making the reports referred to in subsection (2) (f) or section 177.01 (4) (a) available to the public”.

113 Section 177 (4) is amended by adding the following paragraphs:

- (b.1) establish guidelines to be followed by members and municipal police departments respecting the provision of notice to the police complaint commissioner on becoming aware of any information that raises a question or concern as to whether the conduct of a member constitutes misconduct;
- (b.2) establish guidelines to be followed by members respecting procedural matters associated with any of the following:
 - (i) the disclosure of information to a member or former member prior to answering questions or providing a statement under section 101 (2) [members’ duty to cooperate with investigating officer, answer questions and provide written statements];
 - (ii) the disclosure of information to persons otherwise providing information or statements to an investigating officer;
 - (iii) the maintenance of confidentiality with respect to any aspect of an investigation under this Part, including the fact of being asked to provide information or statements relating to the investigation;

- (iv) the duty of a member to cooperate in an investigation under this Part;
- (b.3) establish guidelines to be followed by members and municipal police departments respecting procedural matters associated with the exercise of powers or performance of duties under the following sections:
 - (i) section 123 [matters related to discipline proceeding];
 - (ii) section 124 [discipline proceeding];
 - (iii) section 125 [conclusion of discipline proceeding];
- (b.4) establish guidelines to be followed by members and municipal police departments respecting administrative or procedural matters associated with investigations for which no express, or only partial, provision has been made under this Part; .

114 Section 177 (4) (d) is amended by striking out “police departments or forces,” and substituting “municipal police departments,”.

115 Section 177 (4) is amended

(a) in paragraph (e) by striking out “sections 40 [functions of director], 42 [studies by director]” and substituting “sections 40 [functions of the director], 40.01 [director’s standards], 42 [studies by director]”, and

(b) by adding the following paragraph:

- (e.2) establish guidelines respecting the policies and procedures that municipal police boards are required to establish under section 173.1 (2) [duty of municipal police board to establish policy respecting service and policy complaints]; .

 - (b) each pre-existing appointment of a person as the chief officer or a deputy chief officer of a pre-existing designated law enforcement unit is continued as if the person were designated under the amended Act as the chief officer or a deputy chief officer of the designated law enforcement unit.
- (3) Each pre-existing appointment of a person as a member of a pre-existing designated board is continued as if the person were appointed under the amended Act as a member of the designated board.
- (4) The terms, powers, duties and functions under the former Act that, immediately before the effective date, apply in relation to a person referred to in subsection (1), (2) or (3) continue to apply to the extent that those terms, powers, duties and functions are consistent with the amended Act.
- (5) The continuation under this section of a person's appointment does not require the person to take an oath or affirmation under section 70 [oaths and affirmations] of the amended Act.
- (6) Subject to their repeal, replacement or amendment under the amended Act or section 131 of this Act, regulations and orders of the minister or Lieutenant Governor in Council under the former Act continue to apply in relation to the following:
 - (a) designated constables, enforcement officers, chief officers and deputy chief officers;
 - (b) members of designated boards.

Transition – regulations and orders respecting designated policing and law enforcement

- 131
- (1) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may amend or repeal regulations or orders under the former Act that have been made by the minister in relation to any of the following:
 - (a) pre-existing designated units, designated constables, enforcement officers, chief officers or deputy chief officers;
 - (b) pre-existing designated boards or members of pre-existing designated boards.
 - (2) Nothing in this section limits the Lieutenant Governor in Council's powers to make regulations and orders under the amended Act.

- (3) For certainty, the Lieutenant Governor in Council may do any of the following under section 74.1 (2) [regulations respecting designated policing] or 74.2 (3) [regulations respecting designated law enforcement] of the amended Act:
- (a) continue a designated policing unit, designated policing board, designated law enforcement unit or designated law enforcement board established as a result of section 129 [transition – continuation of pre-existing designated units and pre-existing designated boards] of this Act;
 - (b) disestablish a designated policing unit, designated policing board, designated law enforcement unit or designated law enforcement board established as a result of section 129 of this Act, or otherwise provide that the designated policing unit, designated policing board, designated law enforcement unit or designated law enforcement board ceases to exist.

Division 3 – Municipal Police Boards

Transition – appointment of council member to board

- 132 (1) For the purposes of section 23 (1) (a) [municipal police board] of the amended Act, the council of a municipality that has a municipal police board must, within 3 months after the effective date, appoint a member of the council to the municipal police board.
- (2) If a council member other than the mayor is appointed in accordance with subsection (1), the mayor’s membership on the municipal police board ends when the council member’s appointment takes effect.
- (3) For certainty, section 24 [term of membership on municipal police board] of the amended Act applies to the council member appointed in accordance with subsection (1) of this section.

Transition – election of chair and vice chair

- 133 Despite section 25 (1) [chair and vice chair of municipal police board] of the amended Act, a municipal police board must elect a chair and vice chair promptly after the council member’s appointment, as made in accordance with section 132 (1) of this Act, takes effect.
