Location	Québec City, Québec
Dates	September 8 to 10, 2024
Activity Type	Conference
Participants	2 Assembly Administration staff

PARTICIPANTS

- Karan Riarh, Committee Clerk, Parliamentary Committees Office
- Katey Stickle, Senior Research Analyst, Parliamentary Committees Office

PROGRAM SUMMARY

The Canadian Council of Public Accounts Committees (CCPAC) supports the work of public accounts committees and legislators across Canada by exchanging information, sharing best practices for reviewing audit reports, and promoting accountability. This year's conference included a roundtable on key developments in each jurisdiction, including changes in practice and process as well as supports and training received by different Public Accounts Committees (PACs) to support their work. Other business sessions covered best practices and innovations related to the oversight responsibility of PACs as well as emerging areas of policy and governance relevant to PACs, including taxation, impact of new technologies such as artificial intelligence, human resources, and sustainable development.
